

Anatomy of an OTP scam.

Know the script before you hear it.

01

The call sounds official.

'This is your bank's fraud department. There's suspicious activity on your account.'

02

They create the emergency.

---

'We need to secure your account right now. I'm sending a verification code.'

03

The code IS the theft.

---

That OTP approves their login — not your protection.

No bank asks you to read a code aloud.
None. Ever.
